HOUSTON SQUARE BAPTIST CHURCH ORGANIZED

Rev. A. J. McElwain to Supply Pulpit of Church on North Side.

Sunday was a day of unusual interest among the Baptists of the city. There were two union and fraternal services held in recognition of the completion of the new church organization in Immanuel chapel.

The morning service was held in the First Baptist church and the night services were in the new church.

The pastor, Dr. Robert Bruce Smith, preached on both occasions, and the choir rendered excellent music. The pastor's morning sermon was on the theme, "At the Parting of the Ways," the night subject was "A Glorious Church."

Rev. A. J. McElwain made an earnest address at the night service.

The First Baptist church more than six years ago bought the location at the corner of Montana and Ange streets, and erected the building and organized a work looking forward to the development and organization of a Baptist church on the north side. For some weeks plans have been maturing toward the organization of an independent church.

A petitionary letter was presented to the parent church asking for church letters for the purpose of perfecting the organization. The request was granted by a unanimous and hearty vote. This letter was signed by 61 members of the First Baptist church. Nearly all of those to whom letters were granted and several others met to complete the organization.

Houston Square Church.
"Robert Bruce Smith, D. D., was chosen as the moderator, and J. Whitney Webb as clerk for the formation of the organization. It was unanimously decided to name the new organization the Houston Square Baptist church, owing to its location adjacent to Houston park."

The following officers were elected:
Deacons, F. A. Hodge, Dr. Irving McNeil and L. S. Frankenburg; trustees, W. D. Mayfield, C. A. Camp, Dr. S. T. Turner, W. W. Sarrels, T. R. Harvey and W. E. Robertson.

J. Whitney Webb was elected clerk, Harry Swain, treasurer, and J. T. Goebel as superintendent of the Sunday school.

The new church starts off with a substantial membership. Services will be held Sunday morning and night from the first Sunday in April.

The Bible school which has met in the afternoon will be changed to 9:45 a. m., and the prayer meeting will be on Wednesday nights.

Rev. A. J. McElwain has been secured as stated supply until a permanent pastor can be secured. He has had experience in the development of young churches.

He will begin his service on Friday night of this week and will preach next Sunday.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT BAPTIST CHURCH Calvary Sunday School Almost Breaks the Record Sunday.

The Sunday school of Calvary Baptist church was up to high water mark yesterday, there being present a larger number than at any time except twice within its history. The church owns three pianos and the entire church has been overhauled. The primary department has made its rooms as pretty as a parlor and is flourishing under the superintendency of Miss Links, with Madams Reed, Palmer and Campbell as teachers.

At the 11 o'clock service the pastor, Dr. Hanks, preached from the text, Acts 4:12. "There is no other name given under heaven, among men whereby we must be saved, but the name of Jesus Christ."

He discussed the three points. First, heaven who have never heard of Christ cannot be saved. They will be condemned for their sins, but not for rejecting Christ.

Second, God has made salvation perfectly easy to obtain, so easy that men stumbe at it. We do not have to earn it, nor deserve it, but simply by repentance and faith to receive the Christ.

Third, what Christ does for the saved. He gives them the best, happiest life, and he gives victory in death.

The elaboration of these points made what many of the audience called "one of the pastor's best sermons."

At the close of the sermon there were three important additions to the church, the church observed the Lord's supper and made a contribution to the poor.

The B. Y. P. U. held its regular service at 7 p. m. and at the 8 p. m. service, Dr. J. D. Ray, of Waco, preached a great sermon to a fine audience.

The Baraca class holds its social meeting with its teacher, Judge T. M. Jones, 1419 Boulevard, this evening. Any man who likes good company is invited.

The Women's Aid will meet Tuesday, 3:30 p. m., at the church with Madams Jones and Matthews entertained.

The regular midweek meeting will be held on Wednesday evening 8 o'clock.

SIGN LANGUAGE IN RELIGION

Rev. Henry Easter Says It Is Necessary to Understand Truth.

Preaching upon the subject of the Lord's supper from the text, "What sign showeth that we may eat and believe," Jno., vi-30, the Rev. Henry Easter, of St. Clement's church, showed the sign language to be essential to the comprehension of religious truth, on Sunday at St. Clement's.

Symbolic teaching has been God's method with us from the beginning, he said, hence we are not surprised to find Jesus making use of parables and drawing forth from the illustrations of the world about him. The sacraments of his appointment are made real to us by the employment of the commonest of all mediums, the water of baptism representing the cleansing efficacy of the blood of Christ, while the elements of the Lord's supper remind us that our souls are strengthened by the body and blood of Christ, as our bodies are of bread and wine.

It is a fact, perhaps a weakness, of our nature, he continued, that we understand only as we compare. The impressions derived from external things bring the powers of the mind into action, so that without the mind rests upon it clothed instinctively with material form. If outward and visible signs of things spiritual, and so invisible, are not given us we invent them for ourselves, as the clasp of the hand or the touch of the hat. What could be more foolish than the battle about the flag? Yet this tattered rag is the outward and visible sign of a nation's honor, in defence of which we give our lives.

We require, then, these outward tokens of the unseen, so that man may be said to be sacramental in his very nature. What we have to do is to keep the sign and the thing signified, clear and distinct, neither emptying the sign of its meaning nor mistaking it altogether for what it was but set to represent. The danger of use is in abuse.

As we speak of two sacraments we must have some way of limiting our meaning, for many invisible things are typified by outward signs. The limiting clause in our definition appears in the words, "Ordained by Christ himself." So, as of divine appointment, these are "generally necessary to salvation." How much do we owe him who has given us these tokens of his favor, who, ministering to us in our weakness, gives us something which our finite minds cannot grasp, however feebly; who helps us to an understanding of the spiritual by the actual experience of our daily lives.

SERIES OF SERMONS IN EAST EL PASO Presbyterian Church Pastor There Begins Series—A Year's Work.

Rev. Kenneth Brown spoke at the morning service in the Park chapel of the East El Paso Presbyterian church Sunday on "The Personality of the Holy Spirit." He argued that the Holy Spirit, the third person of the godhead, possesses a distinct personality, because he is always referred to in the scriptures by use of the personal pronoun, "he," and because independent of him, he is invoked in prayer, and possesses attributes of a distinct divine personality.

The discussion forms the introduction to a series of sermons to be preached on the Sabbath mornings of April on "The Emblems of the Holy Spirit, Namely, Oil, Fire, Air and Water."

The communion of the Lord's supper was celebrated at the morning service at the chapel, and at the night service at the Myrtle avenue chapel.

The East El Paso Presbyterian church has just completed the second year of its existence, and is able to report a benevolence during the year and the year, or an increase of nearly 170 percent in its communicants. Four infants have been baptized and 12 persons have been baptized on profession and seven persons baptized in infancy were received into full communion. At this time about 50 new members have been added to the Sabbath schools and a boys' club and girls' club have been organized with about 15 members in each.

About $50 has been contributed for benevolence during the year and the aim for the coming year is $100. Nearly $400 has been raised for a church building fund, and about $700 has been contributed by members of the church and outside friends towards the running expenses and pastore salary. All this has been accomplished by a church which started a little over a year ago with 16 charter members and has had no church building or modern church equipment with which to work.

DR. WRIGHT GOING TO CONFERENCE; COMMUNION SERVICE.
Rev. Caspar S. Wright preached at Trinity Methodist church Sunday morning from the text, "This man receiveth sinners and eateth with them," St. Luke, 1-15.

The communion service was observed in the evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the stewards will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

At Carlsbad, N. M., on April 13, the annual district conference for the El Paso district will convene and the pastor has called upon a congregation to prepare all church matters prior to that, so he can attend.

NO PREACHING SUNDAY AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
Owing to the absence of Rev. Perry J. Rice from the city there was no preaching at the First Christian church Sunday. In the morning the communion service was observed and in the evening there were no services.

The Wednesday night prayer meeting will be led by Millard Patterson, and there will be a minister here to occupy the pulpit next Sunday.

Cood Spring Tonic

"We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a spring tonic and as a blood purifier. Last spring I was not well at all. When I went to bed I was tired and nervous and could not sleep well. In the morning I would feel twice as tired; my mother got a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took. I felt like a new person when I had finished that bottle. We always have some of Hood's medicines in the house." Hilkey Roselle, Marlinton, W. Va.

There is no "just as good" medicine. Insist on having Hood's. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

AGED MINISTER AT PRESBYTERIANS' SERVICE

Uncle of the Pastor Assists at the Service—Writes Book on Texas.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church, in which a large number of communicants participated. Before the observance of the sacrament 16 new members were received into the church, 10 by certificate, and six on profession.

The pastor, C. L. Overstreet, made a brief talk to the new members, his remarks being especially directed to the young people of the church.

A pleasant and beautiful feature of the service was the part taken by Rev. R. M. Overstreet, the aged uncle of the pastor, who offered the morning prayer and assisted in the sacrament.

The elder Mr. Overstreet is past 80 years of age. He was born in Kentucky and educated at Bloomington, Ind., and Princeton, N. J. He is one of the pioneers of the Presbyterian church, having spent 50 years of his ministerial career in blazing the way in Texas, Kansas and "No-Man's-Land," Okla. His book on "The Old and New Texas," gives a most interesting account of his labors in this state.

Mr. Overstreet, at his advanced age, though not engaged in the active ministry, is still a vigorous and well preserved man. He now resides at Chillicothe, Tex.

The choir sang, "The Lord is My Shepherd," at the morning service, and Mrs. Moore sang, "There is a Green Hill Far Away."

In the evening the pastor preached from a text in John, 21st chapter. His subject was "Peter's Restoration." It was an Epiphany study, bringing out the strange appearance of Christ to Peter and his disciples after the resurrection, and how gently he restored Peter to his place in the apostolate.

The missionary committee meets Monday evening at the church.

Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Aid society will hold its regular monthly meeting. At 8 o'clock the session and trust meeting will be held.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock occurs the prayer meeting and bible study.

The annual congregational meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, April 13th. This will be the time when it is the plan to make the meeting a large social affair. By that time the church expects to have the entire debt raised. The full amount is rapidly being reached.

VISITOR PREACHES SUNDAY
Rev. Mylie Hancock, conducted the services at Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday, the communion service being observed in the morning.

Next Sunday Rev. J. P. Martin, of Pittsburg, will occupy the pulpit at this church.

The regular weekly meeting of the Aid society will be held at the church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.
All the services were well attended at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday. The pastor, C. O. Beckman, occupied the pulpit at both the morning and the evening service.

At the close of the morning service there were two additions to the church, both on confession of faith. The morning topic was on "Living and Dead Works." In the evening the topic was "Some Things I Have Not Seen, Yet in Which I Believe." There were two baptisms at the close of the evening service.

The midweek prayer meeting will be held at 8 on Wednesday evening. The official board of the church will meet at the close of the prayer meeting.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET.
The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet Tuesday at 3 p. m., at the church. Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Denny leaders.

JUAREZ SOCIETY ENJOYS DANCE.
Young people's society of Juarez danced Saturday night at Teatro Juarez as guests of the Recreation club. The floor was comfortably filled with dancers.
